

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Wojciech Bańczyk – The Entailed Estate in Polish Law from late 15 th to the 20 th Century: Exception from General Succession Law and Perpetuation of Estate	9
Gábor Bathó – Government Acting on Itself: Hungarian Cabinet in the Interwar Period	29
Zsófia Biró – Foundations of the Uncodified Historical Constitution of Hungary .	39
Athanasios A. Delios – The Protection of Oikoi under Extinction by the Eponymous Archon in Ancient Athens: The Law and its Application	59
Izabella Drócsa – The Transformation of Political Crimes and its Impact on the Hungarian Criminal Regulation with Special Regard to the Interwar Period .	71
Tea Dularidze – Information Exchange and Relations between Ahhiyawa and the Hittite Empire	89
Dóra Frey – The Influence of the Rules of Succession on the Structure of Hungarian and German Families of Southern Transdanubia in the Early 20 th Century	99
Michał Gałędek – The Beginning of the Debate on the Codification of Polish Law after the World War I: The Issue of the Codification Commission Autonomy in the Light of Political Declarations	119
Anna Iacoboni – The Legal Value of Mos Maiorum in Cicero	135
Imre Képešy – The Consolidation of Hungarian Legal Practice with the Austrian Norms in 1861	155
Anna Klimaszewska – Searching for National Components in Building own Legal Culture: The Debate on the Legal Situation of Women in Interwar Poland ..	169
Ilya A. Kotlyar – Bankruptcy and the Praetorian Pledge : The Law of the Books and the Law in Action in the Early Modern Netherlands	181
Joanna Kulawiak-Cyrankowska – The Death Penalty, the “Marriage Penalty” and Some Remarks on the Utility of Senecan Research in the Study of Roman Law	197
Elżbieta Loska – On Prosecutor’s Offences in Roman Criminal Trial	215
Marcin Łysko – Main Problems of the Codification Works on Substantive Misdemeanor Law in People’s Poland	223
Dawid Michalski – Constitutional Norms in the Polish and Finnish Constitutions of the Interwar Period	235

Claudia Passarella – From Scandalous Verdicts to “Suicidal Sentences”: The Reform of the Courts of Assize under the Fascist Regime	251
Nicolas Picard – Escaping the Guillotine: The Gap between the Crimes Punishable by Death and the Effective Death Sentences (France, 20 th Century)	265
Stephanie Plasschaert – The Nautical Commission in the 19 th Century Antwerp .	283
Jakub Pokoj – Between Law in the Books and Law in Action: Counteracting Speculation and Usury in Poland (1918-1920)	309
Balázs Rigó – Norms and Legal Practice of Patriarchalism according to James II’s Advices to His Son (1692)	319
Simone Rosati – Community (Custom) vs. State (Law): The Debate about Property in the Papal States in the 18 th – 19 th Centuries	335
Wouter De Rycke – In Search of a Legal Conscience: Juridical Reformism in the Mid-19 th Century Peace Movement	355
Aneta Skalec – Norms and Legal Practice in Ancient Egypt: A Case Study of Irrigation System Management	375
Helen Tank – Living with the Rules: Gender and the Rule of Law in Herodotus’ Histories	389
Cornelis M. in ’t Veld – The Conservation in Lyon and the Long Tradition of Coutume and Usage	405
Stanisław Zakroczyński – Did Totalitarian Experience Shape Democratic Norms? Struggle for the Independence of the Polish Judiciary and its Results: Conclusions from Talks with Professor Adam Strzembosz	421