

RIAS EDITORIAL POLICY AND RIAS STYLE

RIAS EDITORIAL POLICY

- RIAS is an electronic, print-on-demand, open-access, peer-reviewed journal.
- RIAS appears twice a year, in Spring/Summer and Fall/Winter. Copy deadlines for unsolicited submissions are, mid-November, and mid-February respectively. While calls for papers are not always disseminated for upcoming issues, when made, such calls will be announced at least 9 months prior to the scheduled publication date for each issue.
- RIAS welcomes submissions from all disciplines and approaches and from all parts of the world, provided that they pertain to the study of 'America' in the broadest implications of that term.
- Please, send your submissions via our OJS system at rias-journal.org. Please, log in as 'Author' and follow the instructions provided by the system.
- RIAS seeks articles (up to 5,000 words) of general interest to the international American Studies community. If you have a proposal for an article, please contact the editor-in-chief with a brief synopsis (200 words). Suggestions for special issues, position papers, or similar initiatives should also be addressed to the editor-in-chief.
- Every submission should be accompanied by the author's name, institutional affiliation, and brief author bio, in addition to an abstract of up to 200 words and an attachment bibliography.

RIAS vol. 7,
Fall-Winter
№ 2/2014

- In principle, we accept contributions in all 'American' languages (i.e., English, French, Spanish, Portuguese, etc.). Accompanying abstracts should be in English (and, if appropriate, in the language of the article's composition).
- RIAS will publish short position papers (approximately 1,000 to 2,000 words) that deal with topical issues in the international arena of American Studies. Only four or more position papers, submitted together, will be considered. These papers will typically be derived from conference panels, colloquia or other kinds of scholarly activity. They should be gathered and edited by one contributor, who will arrange for them to be peer-reviewed prior to submission. The submitting contributor will obtain and submit all author information, and will submit along with the papers a brief explanation or synopsis of the debate that is treated, for the purposes of orienting the reader with regard to the questions or problems to be discussed. The submitting contributor will also obtain and provide a brief (100 words) abstract for each paper submitted.
- Authors retain the copyright to their contributions. This means that the authors are free to republish their texts elsewhere on the condition that acknowledgment is made to RIAS. Authors who wish to reproduce materials already published elsewhere must obtain permission from the copyright holder(s) and provide such permission along with their submission. This includes all photographs or other illustrations accompanying a submission.

- Start with your name, followed by your affiliation between brackets, and the full title on the next line.
- Pre-format your text in Times New Roman or Unicode font typeface, 12 point and 1.5 line spacing.

- Those writing in English should use American spelling (but quotations should remain as they are in the original spelling).
- Those writing in languages other than English should observe the stylistic conventions (capitalization, alphabetical listing of personal names, etc.) linked to these languages.
- Quotations from other languages should be either in translation or appear both in the original and in translation.
- Cited publications are referred to in parenthetical references in the text as follows: ' [...] ' (Surname, date: page reference).
- Use single quotations marks. Use double quotation marks for quotations within quotations.
- Longer quotations exceeding three lines should be indented and single-spaced.

- Use single quotation marks around words used in a special sense.
- All punctuation marks that do not appear in the original text should appear outside the quotation marks.
